1. A briefing was conducted on Saturday morning, 16 October, for wives of the members of the October Class. Twenty-two out of twenty-seven appeared for the two-hour session. As usual, the main areas of coverage were: a general briefing on the mission and functions of the Agency; the Career Training Program, both in general, and what it means to their husbands; a cover briefing, with particular reference to the role and significance of the wife in living Agency cover. This was followed by a general question-and-answer period in which there was lively participation.

2. On Monday, 18 October, we received a telephone call from a young lady in Evanston, Illinois, who identified herself as Miss Rebecca Welch, a graduate student at Northwestern University, who wanted to write a paper on the Agency's Career Training Program. She said her paper, though of the "magazine article type", was not intended for publication, and she was prepared to come to Washington for interviews if such could be arranged and would help her obtain information. Mr. [REDACTED] 25X1A who took the call, told her that the information which could be given her is contained in the recruitment literature which is available in the University Placement Office, and referred her to that office. At this point she concluded that her choice of topic was perhaps not such a good one, and the conversation was brought politely to a close. Since she did not press the issue Mr. [REDACTED] did not question her as to the background of her request, how she got the telephone number, etc. A check of the Office of Personnel records reflects that she has not been an applicant for Agency employment. The foregoing has been reported informally to the Director's Assistant for Public Affairs.

3. On Thursday, 21 October, I met briefly with the Agency's China Intelligence Committee at the invitation of the Chairman, Mr. [REDACTED] of the DDI Research Staff. The purpose was to brief the group concerning the numbers and apparent qualifications of the many graduate-level Americans who are studying Chinese on National Defense Education Act fellowships -- the information obtained recently from the U.S. Office of Education. I left a roster of about 190 or more such students with the group; what if anything they may wish to do with it will be taken up in some subsequent discussion.
